“It is possible to create the desirable hourglass shape across all body types by creating balance within a dress. Designing for actresses and celebrities [Nigella Lawson famously bought 12 Bombshell dresses] allowed me to explore techniques for balancing your shape and concealing the bits we don't like by draping and shearing panels... Using the finest of fabrics and British manufacturers ensures we can look after every detail of every dress, every step of the way.”

Founder of Bombshell, Katya Wildman, explains.

The gold sequin Bombshell gown is crafted using the finest vintage Hollywood-style stretch sequins. Signature drapes conceal the tummy area; skilfully cut back, it skims under the bottom, making for the most striking of silhouettes. The nude lining is plush and stretchy making this gown shockingly comfortable to wear.
