Kindly donated by Tradewise Insurance Company

---

Watch either a 2017 England football match or an NFL American Football fixture from an executive box for eight people at Wembley Stadium. This offers fantastic views of the pitch, with VIP treatment and comfort in this iconic stadium. The prize includes a sit down buffet dinner, served in the box before the game and includes all drinks and snacks and the use of two parking spaces. Fixtures for both should be available before the end of 2017.

LOT 102

The world's most advanced patient care mattresses
Kindly donated by the Teasdale family

---

We have five of these mattresses, the most advanced and effective range of electronically controlled air mattresses, designed by Teasdale Hospital Equipment specifically for pressure ulcer (bed sore) therapy and prevention. There are over 8,000 Teasdale systems currently used in the NHS. Pressure ulcers are both painful and potentially life threatening and are common to patients of all ages. Costing £5,000 each, the successful bidders will have a unit placed in a hospice of their choice, while their bids will go directly to support the work of Children with Cancer UK.

'Jenny Wren', a bronze sculpture by David Cemmick
Kindly donated by David Cemmick

---

David Cemmick creates limited edition bronze wildlife sculptures. He has always had an interest in wildlife, and started his artistic career after studying animal anatomy as a practicing taxidermist. He spent over 30 years in the field as a freelance artist, sketching animals in their natural habitat. His world travels inform and inspire his work, with the natural world always a central theme. This beautiful foundry bronze entitled 'Jenny Wren' is a limited edition of 55 and stands 14" (35cms) high.

LOT 236

'Sitting Pretty', limited edition lino cut hare by Sarah Cemmick
Kindly donated by Sarah Cemmick

Sarah studied environmental illustration which started a love affair with lino printing. Shortly after graduating, she was awarded the Lloyds Private Banking award at the Society of Wildlife Artists for her print, Rhino Lino. She has spent the following years creating new works with exhibitions throughout the UK. Current works are inspired by the hares, songbirds and abundant furry creatures she sees in and around the fells surrounding her Cumbria home. 'Sitting Pretty' is from a limited edition of 25 and measures 23" (59cms) by 32" (81cms) framed.

LOT 237

'On your Tail', a bronze sculpture by David Cemmick

The otter and trout, called 'On your Tail' was inspired by a diving trip to the west coast of Scotland, where otters hunt the lochs and streams running to the sea. Cast as an edition of twelve, the foundry bronze sculpture stands one meter tall, with a base footprint of 450mm by 600mm, and is finished in a traditional brown patination with verdigris base colouration. Sculptor David Cemmick exhibits at select galleries throughout the UK and has private and royal collectors across the globe.

Countryside's 'Lady Tottering' meets City's 'Alex', an original watercolour cartoon, framed

Kindly donated by Annie Tempest and Charles Peattie

---

An original watercolour cartoon in a rare collaboration from two of the UK's leading cartoonists, Annie Tempest of Country Life Magazine and Charles Peattie of The Daily Telegraph. This historic artwork shows two beloved British cartoon characters who have appeared for nearly a quarter of a century each in our newspapers and magazines.

Annie Tempest's cartoon strip The Yuppies ran for seven years in the Daily Mail and her acclaimed cartoon strip Tottering-by-Gently has graced the pages of Country Life magazine since 1993. In 2009, the Cartoon Art Trust awarded her the Pont Award for her portrayal of the British character. Charles Peattie's daily cartoon strip Alex (created with Russell Taylor) has been a constant presence in Britain's national press for over 25 years, producing stage and radio versions of the character's exploits and winning his creators a couple of MBEs along the way. ### Photographic Synergy's 'Watch Me Grow' photographic sessions

Kindly donated by Photographic Synergy

Photographic Synergy's 'Watch Me Grow' scheme is a way for you to immortalise those first cherished stages of your baby's life, growing and developing into a walking, talking toddler. You'll be invited for three separate photography sessions at Photographic Synergy's studios in St Albans, ideally falling during three distinct periods of your baby's life: new born (0-3 months), exploring and crawling (six months to one year) and first steps. You will get all the digital images from all three studio shoots and you'll be able to choose a 6" x 6" image from each session to be put into your personalised presentation folder; a perfect way to record your child's growth. The prize must be taken up before 31st July 2017 and the value (£1,195) may not be exchanged for other goods and services.

The Spencer, a cardigan by Ross Barr

Kindly donated by Ross Barr

Ross Barr is a brand which celebrates traditional British methods by sourcing materials domestically. Each garment is manufactured in the UK, fulfilling the brand's promise: "Every stitch and every thread... authentically British". The Spencer is a chunky knit, double-breasted, flattering wool cardigan with shawl collar. Inspired by the Regency period, it's been brought up to date by Ross Barr's eponymous designer and founder. Knitted and hand-finished in Leicester, with Yorkshire-spun Scottish yarn spun and finished with English pine buttons, The Spencer is unapologetically British. Our winning bidder can choose their size and colour - it's currently available in claret, denim and loden.
